

I am asking you to delay a vote on the deregulation of the ownership of the news media. Let the people have their say. Listen to what to what they have to say. We need to hear more opinions not just a few big money ideas. Your conflict of interest has been exposed. The whole commission is in bed the big media networks. Do something for the American people instead of your own pocket.